This week Bogy Ward from Old Iggies (OI) interviews club sponsor Angelo Maiorana (AM).

Angelo
the proud sponsor of OIRFC

Angelo
the NOT so proud driver of Orange 10s bus

OI You have played with Old Iggies for years. Who else have you played with?

AM Just myself.... nah! Don't print that people will take it the wrong way.

OI You have a million nicknames can you let us know a few?

AM Gelo, Pea-Bo, Bandcamp. Gelonator, Wild Tuna Man

OI What is your career highlight?

AM Winning the plate with the Sydney Schooners in Manilla.

OI What is your favourite Position?

AM I really like to lean... so I guess in the front row or under the goal posts.

OI Any career ambitions?

AM To be a bus driver.... yeah one day I would like to do that.

OI What's your favourite ad?

AM I love the ad for LG TV with the built in tuner. They suggest there is actually a Tuna inside the TV and it bumps its head against the screen. . . it really cracks me up!

OI What's the best bit of advice you have been given?

AM Matty Thomas once said "If you have to get nude on a bus, don't sit on vinyl. People don't want to see the steaming V"

OI You are renowned for hanging around and playing numerous games. What is the most amount of games you have played?

AM I once played 6s, then 5s, 4s and 3rds... almost got on for 1s but they went non contest.

OI Who is your favourite player?

AM Shogo Kikuchi.... but I know I am better player than him. No disrespect to Shogo... he was good in his day.
