This week Boggy Ward from Old Iggies (OI) interviews club Superstar Robbie Palmer (RP).

Robbie Spitting chips

OI You have played with Old Iggies for years. Who else have you played with?

RP Norths in colts and then Old Iggies

OI DO you prefer being on the rugby field or in front of a camera?

RP Rugby of course!

OI What is your acting career highlight?

RP I once played a young gay man from Lithgow in a one man play in Newtown – I think you came along Boggy? [Yes I did]

OI What is your favourite Position?

RP Any position as long as everyone can see me.

OI What Movie Character do you think is the closest to your actually personality?

RP I don't know if you have seen Monty Python's Search for the Holy Grail, However I think I am a lot like Prince Herbert of Swamp Castle who didn't want big tracks of land.

"But I don't want any of that. I'd rather . . . I'd rather . . . Just Sing . . ."

OI What's your Favourite Movie?

RP I haven't been in a feature film yet, but I guess this question isn't really about me. So I would say "The Castle". I like the character played by Eric Bana.

OI What's the best bit of advice you have been given?

RP My brother is always giving me advice about Public Transport and Buses. . . . but I can't quite remember what he said. . . . you know that no one really listens to Micky !

OI You are often sighted doing the rounds at Ruscutters Bay, what is the attraction.

RP My mate Todd and myself just like to walk around and take in that beautiful view.

OI Who is the most famous person you know?

RP "Crazy" Dave Matthews
